

AT EMBEDDED WORLD 2025

March 11-13, 2025 | Nuremberg, Germany

2025 SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

RISC-V: The Embedded Ecosystem Grows Even Stronger in 2025

The world again turns its attention to embedded systems in Nuremberg Germany, coming March 2025. How will you demonstrate your technology leadership at embedded world 2025? A presence at the the RISC-V Pavilion is the key to making the most of the event!

Start with your own demo kiosk where you can interact with attendees and show your latest products and demonstrations. Reach an even wider audience with two 10 minute speaking slots in our popular RISC-V Demo Theater and 2 minutes to pitch your company in our Lightning Round! Top it off with one of our hugely popular two-minute video interviews, featured on the RISC-V YouTube channel.

Share your insights, outline your vision and roadmap, spotlight groundbreaking customer successes, or unveil an exciting new product... the spotlight is yours!

You'll be alongside the best and the brightest of the RISC-V movement, with access to 27,000 high-quality attendees expected at the event.

We will heavily promote your participation in the RISC-V Pavilion. Here are just a few of the ways we'll celebrate you:

- Listed as a co-exhibitor in the EW25 program
- A mention in a RISC-V pre-event marketing emails and blogs, as well as inclusion in post-event communications, all created by RISC-V
- Inclusion in our highlights of embedded world video

And as always, we'll include your logo on all our event website pages.

It's a recipe for success at this high-value event.
