Abstract Title*
If your talk is selected, the Abstract Title you choose will be the Title shown in the conference schedule; often what attendees use as a starting point to determine if they will be interested in the talk. Choose your title carefully - make sure that it accurately describes what your talk will cover.

Abstract*
Provide an abstract that briefly summarizes your proposal. Provide as much information as possible about what the content will include. Do not be vague. This is the description that will be posted on the website schedule if your talk is selected, so be sure to spell check, use complete sentences (and not just bullet points), and write in the third person (use your name instead of "I").
Audience*
Describe who the audience is and what you expect them to gain from your presentation.
Benefits to the Ecosystem*
Tell us how the content of your presentation will help better the ecosystem. (We realize that this can be a difficult question to ans but as with the abstract, the relevance of your presentation, and why people should attend the session, is just as important as the content).
Have you given this presentation before? Yes No your session is accepted, would you be open to our PR team contacting you about speaking with media and press onsite?*

☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Maybe - please follow-up with me closer to the event
Additional Details & Speaker Agreements

The Program Committee reviews many proposals, and having extra resources helps to gauge the speaker's expertise and ability to deliver a talk effectively. Please share a video or audio recording of a previous talk you've given. If you don't have a previous talk recording to submit simply create a quick YouTube video of yourself speaking for a couple of minutes.
