Additional Speaker or Panelists

Note: Each session is allowed (1) primary speaker and (1) co-speaker. The primary speaker for a proposal will receive a complimentary conference pass and the co-speaker will receive a discounted conference pass. All submissions with more than 2 speakers are considered panels and should be submitted as a panel discussion. Note that we do not allow panels with only men. For panel discussions, all panelists will receive a complimentary conference pass; there is a maximum of 4 panelists & 1 moderator.

Is this a panel discussion?

- Yes
- No

The Linux Foundation does not accept panels with only men participating, in an effort to increase speaker diversity. In addition, speakers may not all be from the same company. Panel submissions must include the names of all participants in the initial submission to be considered. By selecting yes here, I confirm that at least one of the participants on this proposed panel identifies as a woman or non-binary.

- Yes
- No

As stated above, due to The Linux Foundation's inclusivity policy, no all male panels will be accepted. Please come back and finish your panel discussion proposal when there is a woman or non-binary participant

Type of Submission*

- Session Presentation (typically 30-40 minutes in length)
- Panel Discussion (typically 30-40 minutes in length)
- Birds of a Feather (typically 45 minutes to one hour in length)

 Abstract Title*

If your talk is selected, the Abstract Title you choose will be the Title shown in the conference schedule; often what attendees use as a starting point to determine if they will be interested in the talk. Choose your title carefully - make sure that it accurately describes what your talk will cover.

 Abstract*

Provide an abstract that briefly summarizes your proposal. Provide as much information as possible about what the content will include. Do not be vague. This is the description that will be posted on the website schedule if your talk is selected, so be sure to spell check, use complete sentences (and not just bullet points), and write in the third person (use your name instead of "I").

 Audience*

Describe who the audience is and what you expect them to gain from your presentation.

 Benefits to the Ecosystem*

Tell us how the content of your presentation will help better the ecosystem. (We realize that this can be a difficult question to answer, but as with the abstract, the relevance of your presentation, and why people should attend the session, is just as important as the content).

 Have you given this presentation before?

- Yes
 No

Conference Name: _____

 If your session is accepted, would you be open to our PR team contacting you about speaking with media and press onsite?*

- Yes
 No
 Maybe - please follow-up with me closer to the event

 Additional Details & Speaker Agreements

 Are you a first-time speaker?*

We love first-time speakers so don't fret about letting us know if you are. We just want to make sure to provide first-time speakers with the right resources before the event to make them successful.

- Yes

No

Would you be interested in first-time speaker assistance?

Yes

No

The Program Committee reviews many proposals, and having extra resources helps to gauge the speaker's expertise and ability to deliver a talk effectively. Please share any links to previous talks showcasing you or any of your speakers, please share below. Other resources, like links to published books, LinkedIn profiles, or relevant blog posts, are also appreciated. We welcome applications from new speakers, so don't worry if you don't have previous talk recordings to submit here. Even a YouTube video of yourself speaking for a couple of minutes could help the reviewers.
