How Will You Accelerate Your RISC-V Success This Year?

The world again turns its attention to RISC-V this December. What will do with your time on the RISC-V global stage?

Start with a comprehensive presence on The RISC-V Experience exhibit floor. You’ll be alongside the best and brightest of the RISC-V movement, with access to the high-quality attendees of every RISC-V Summit. You’ll also reach the global RISC-V community with your virtual exhibit booth. Post videos, demos, links and files; chat with the online audience; and capture leads and traffic data.

It’s the best of the RISC-V long tail.

Before the Summit, you’re included in our hotly anticipated pre-show news package, and you’ll get an early look at the Summit’s pre-registered press and analyst list. At the Summit we’ll include your logo on all Summit web pages, livestream on our virtual event platform, and onsite sponsor signs; and you’ll get a generous number of free or deeply discounted All-Access Summit Passes to share with team members or your most important customers and prospects.

It’s a recipe for success in this high-growth community.

Upgrade your presence to Gold, Platinum, or Diamond levels and elevate your organization to exclusive events, VIP attendee access, and personal attention from RISC-V International’s respected and highly effective executives.

It’s an outstanding way to maximize your ROI.

Start with speaking appearances in our RISC-V Experience demo theater, in breakout sessions, during our new RISC-V FutureWatch press release slate, and even on our main stage. Share your wisdom, detail your vision and roadmap, announce a major new product, or call the global RISC-V community to action... the stage is yours. At the highest level, gain access for your executives to exclusive, invite-only meetings with the most influential companies, media, analysts, and opinion leaders of the most important technology or industry topics today.

Act now. Quantities for the premium sponsorship tiers are limited.
