Additional Speaker or Panelists

Note: Each session is allowed (1) primary speaker and (1) co--speaker. All submissions with more than 2 speakers are considered panels and should be submitted as a panel discussion. We encourage a diverse set of participants across race, gender & backgrounds, and please note that panels cannot be comprised of all men. For panel discussions, all panelists will receive a complimentary conference pass; there is a maximum of 4 panelists & 1 moderator.

Is this a panel discussion?

Yes

No

Apache Cassandra® and the Linux Foundation does not accept panels with only men participating, in an effort to increase speaker diversity. In addition, speakers may not all be from the same company. Panel submissions must include the names of all participants in the initial submission to be considered. By selecting yes here, I confirm that at least one of the participants on this proposed panel identifies as a woman or non-binary.

Yes

No

As stated above, due to the inclusivity policy, no all male panels will be accepted. Please come back and finish your panel discussion proposal when there is a woman or non-binary participant.

 Abstract Title*

If your talk is selected, the Abstract Title you choose will be the Title shown in the conference schedule, often what attendees use as a starting point to determine if they will be interested in the talk. Choose your title carefully - make sure that it accurately describes what your talk will cover. Please use title case when inputting your title here.

 Abstract*

Provide an abstract that briefly summarizes your proposal. Provide as much information as possible about what the content will include. Do not be vague. This is the description that will be posted on the website schedule if your talk is selected, so be sure to spell check, use complete sentences (and not just bullet points), and write in the third person (use your name instead of "I"). Remember that this description is what will make an attendee decide whether your session would be a good fit for them. Be sure to provide enough information to help attendees make the right choice. Be clear and concise.

 Audience*

Describe who the audience is and what you expect them to gain from your presentation.

 Additional Details & Speaker Agreements

The Program Committee reviews many proposals, and having extra resources helps to gauge the speaker's expertise and ability to deliver a talk effectively. Please share a video or audio recording of a previous talk you've given. If you don't have a previous talk recording to submit simply create a quick YouTube video of yourself speaking for a couple of minutes.
