Additional Speaker and/or Panelists Information

Note: All submissions with more than 2 speakers are considered panels and should be submitted as a panel discussion. Note that we do not allow panels with only men. There is a maximum of 4 panelists & 1 moderator.

Is this a panel discussion?

☐ Yes
☐ No

The Linux Foundation does not accept panels with only men participating in an effort to increase speaker diversity. In addition, speakers may not all be from the same company. Panel submissions must include the names of all participants in the initial proposal to be considered. By selecting yes here, I confirm that at least one of the participants on this proposed panel identifies as a woman or of another gender identity.*

☐ Yes
☐ No

As stated above, due to The Linux Foundation's inclusivity policy, no all male panels will be accepted. Please come back and finish your panel discussion proposal when there is a woman participant.
