- Lightning Talk (typically 5-10 minutes in length)
- Tutorial (typically 1.5 - 2 hours in length)

Abstract Title*

If your talk is selected, the Abstract Title you choose will be the Title shown in the conference schedule, often what attendees use as a starting point to determine if they will be interested in the talk. Choose your title carefully - make sure that it accurately describes what your talk will cover. Please use title case when inputting your title here.

Abstract*

Provide an abstract that briefly summarizes your proposal. Provide as much information as possible about what the content will include. Do not be vague. This is the description that will be posted on the website schedule if your talk is selected, so be sure to spell check, use complete sentences (and not just bullet points), and write in the third person (use your name instead of "I"). Remember that this description is what will make an attendee decide whether your session would be a good fit for them. Be sure to provide enough information to help attendees make the right choice. Be clear and concise. The presentation selection process is very competitive, with many proposals rejected. A well-written abstract will greatly increase the possibility of the proposal being accepted. (Maximum characters: 1,200)

Audience*

Describe who the audience is and what you expect them to gain from your presentation.(Maximum characters: 1,200)

Benefits to the Ecosystem*

Tell us how the content of your presentation will help better the ecosystem. (We realize that this can be a difficult question to answer, but as with the abstract, the relevance of your presentation is just as important as the content).(Maximum characters: 1,200)

Have you or anyone else given this presentation before?*

- Yes
- No

Conference Name: _____

When did the presentation take place (year, month): _____

Please provide a link to the slides and/or video of the previous presentation. _____

If your session is accepted, would you be open to our PR team contacting you about speaking with the media and press?

- Yes
- No
- Maybe - please follow up with me closer to the event

Additional Details & Speaker Agreements

Are you a first-time speaker?*

We love first-time speakers so don't fret about letting us know if you are. We just want to make sure to provide first-time speakers with the right resources before the event to make them successful.

- Yes
- No

Would you be willing to do a first-time speaker's course?

- Yes
- No

The Program Committee reviews many proposals, and having extra resources helps to gauge the speaker's experience and expertise. If you have any links to previous talks showcasing you or any of your speakers, please share below. Other resources, like links to published books, LinkedIn profiles, or relevant blog posts, are also appreciated. We welcome applications from new speakers, so don't worry if you don't have previous talk recordings to submit here. Even a YouTube video of yourself speaking for a couple of minutes could help the reviewers.
