Embedded Open Source Summit
June 27-30, 2023 | Prague, Czech Republic

About the Summit
Embedded computing systems are essential to the operation of electronic devices and systems across a wide range of industries, and the Linux Foundation is host to numerous open source projects dedicated to this space.

Embedded Open Source Summit (EOSS) is a new umbrella event for open source embedded projects and developer communities to come together under one roof for important collaboration, discussions and education.

The event is composed of micro conferences including Embedded Linux Conference and Zephyr Developer Summit. Micro conferences will include presentations, BoFs, training, workshops and min-conf designed for real time problem solving and deep discussion. Additional micro conferences in the EOSS umbrella will be announced soon. The conference will take place Tuesday, June 27-Friday, June 30 with optional co-located events and training on Monday, June 26.

Who Attends
• Anticipated 2023 Attendance: 750 In-Person Attendees
• Developers: Kernel Developers, System Developers and User Space Developers
• Architects
• Product Vendors

Why Attend Embedded Open Source Summit?
• Learn about the newest and most interesting embedded technologies and projects in a vendor-neutral setting.
• Get access to leading experts in both formal and informal settings.
• Have fascinating discussions and collaborate with both peers and experts in embedded Linux and adjacent projects
• Gain a competitive advantage with innovative embedded solutions.

Why Sponsor
Sponsoring Embedded Open Source Summit gives you the opportunity to reach a diverse and multi-faceted audience of practitioners, in one place. Many organizations are engaged in a number of the technology areas covered at Embedded Open Source Summit, making this the one conference providing you the opportunity to connect with many communities at one event and to achieve a variety of sponsorship goals:
